- 2.2 This code is designed to set out required standards and help employees understand the working relationship between themselves, their managers, colleagues, pupils and members of the public to whom they deliver a service.
- 2.3 This policy details the main standards of behaviour that you need to adhere to and also details the behaviours that The Romero Catholic Academy would normally regard as gross misconduct. The standards of behaviour and the examples of gross misconduct (listed in the TRCA Disciplinary Policy) should not be considered exhaustive. The Romero Catholic Academy believe that employees are responsible for their actions. Principals/LGBs/Line Managers will ensure that staff are fully briefed on the content and have access to a copy of the Code of Conduct, it is however the responsibility of all employees to read the Code. If any of the provisions contained within the Code of Conduct, related Codes of Practice or Policies are not fully understood, then the employee must, in their own interest, seek clarification from their Line Manager or from HR by emailing hr@romeromac.com
- 2.4 Principals must ensure that current HR policies and other advice/guidance referred to throughout this document are accessible for all staff employed within The Romero Catholic Academy. The current HR policies are available on <https://romeromac.com/policies-procedures/> or via the HR Team in the Shared Services Office. Policies are reviewed annually, to ensure the most appropriate employment legislation is adhered too.
- 2.5 If an employee's actions or behaviour fall below the standards set out in this Code, then The Romero Catholic Academy may take formal disciplinary action which may include the full range of disciplinary sanctions. Serious misconduct, criminal offences or other acts committed outside of working hours, which bring The Romero Catholic Academy into disrepute or impact on the employee's ability to carry out their role, may also result in formal disciplinary action being taken, in accordance with The Romero Catholic Academy's procedures.

Therefore, this code sets out required standards for all employees.
- 3.2 Employees should comply with the rules and procedures set by The Romero Catholic Academy/School in relation to actions and behaviours. These can be found in school documents on school or TRCA websites. The HR Policies are available on our TRCA website:

- 3.4 Employees have a responsibility for ensuring a safe learning environment for children and young people within the School.

4.2 The Romero Catholic Academy is committed to promoting equality and diversity among our workforce, and eliminating unlawful discrimination. We believe that excellence will be achieved through recognising the value of every individual. We aim to create an environment that respects the diversity of staff, enabling them to achieve their full potential, contribute fully and derive maximum benefit and enjoyment from their involvement in the life of the Academy.

4.3 To this end, we acknowledge the following basic rights for all members and prospective members of our community:

- No individual will be unjustly discriminated against. This includes, but is not limited to, discrimination because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex and sexual orientation.
- All forms of bullying, including threats or verbal aggression towards colleagues is unacceptable and will be dealt with seriously by The Romero Catholic Academy.

- Employees should not be involved in decisions relating to any discipline, promotion, performance development review, or pay progression of any employee who is a relative, or with whom they have a close personal relationship. If an employee develops a close personal relationship where a conflict of interest might arise they should notify their Line Manager/HR.

4.5 An employee should never conceal a matter that should be reported, or damage, alter or falsify any document, form or record. Please see Whistleblowing Policy at the link in 4.4.

4.6 It is the responsibility of the employee that if their personal circumstances change, i.e. change of address or home telephone number, they must inform a member of the school's Administrative team and their Line Manager who will make the relevant changes.

5. Working with Children and Young People

5.1 Infatuations

- Occasionally, a child or young person may develop an infatuation with an adult who works with them. When this does occur, words or actions may be misinterpreted. An employee, who becomes aware that a child or young person is developing an infatuation, should discuss this at the earliest opportunity with their line manager so appropriate action can be taken to avoid any hurt, distress or embarrassment.

5.2 Social Contacts

- Employees should not seek to have social contact with a child or young person (including those past students who have left Year 11,12,13 for at least two years) have or their families unless the reason for this contact has been firmly established and agreed with their Principal/Line Manager. If a parent or child seeks to establish social contact, or if this occurs coincidentally, the employee should exercise their professional judgement in making a response but should always discuss the situation with their Line Manager. Such examples could be related to internet social networking sites (i.e. being asked to be a 'friend' on 'Facebook'). Further details are included in TRCA Social Media Policy.
- Employees should always communicate with current and past pupils/ parents using the Company's monitored IT system or the school mobile or telephone/extension number. In rare circumstances where this is not possible, the employee should gain permission from their Principal/Line Manager if there is a need for them to give their personal details such as home/mobile phone number; home or email address to a child or young person. Under normal circumstances this would be discouraged because of the potential implications from such an action. The process of gaining permission examines the reason for the need and allows it to be 'noted' - in the interest of seeking to protect the employee.

5.3 Physical Contact

- There are occasions when it is entirely appropriate for employees to have some physical contact with the child or young person with whom they are working, for example those who teach PE, Games, Drama or who offer music tuition. However, it is crucial that in all circumstances, employees should only touch children in ways which are appropriate to their professional or agreed role and responsibilities.
- When physical contact is made with a child this should be in response to their needs at the time, of limited duration and appropriate to their age, stage of development, gender, ethnicity and background.
- In all circumstances where a child or young person initiates inappropriate physical contact, employees should sensitively deter the child and help them understand the importance of personal boundaries and must always report such circumstances to their Principal/Line Manager.

5.4 Sexual Contact

- It is an offence for a person over 18 to have a sexual relationship with a child under 18 where that person is in a position of trust in respect of that child, even if the relationship is consensual. This applies where the child is in full-time education and the person works in the same establishment as the child, even if s/he does not teach the child. The sexual activity referred to does not just involve physical contact it may also include non-contact activities.
- Any sexual activity between an employee and a child or young person with whom they work may be regarded as a criminal offence and will always be a matter for disciplinary action.
- Forming inappropriate relationships or friendships with pupils who are ex-pupils under the age of 18 will be viewed as inappropriate and impact upon the school's ability to trust the member of staff to maintain professional boundaries with pupils at the school. Employees must not enter into a personal relationship with pupils at the school or conduct improper relationships. For past students leaving Year 11/12/13 (or equivalent) and are 18 years +, there should be at least two years after leaving before a personal relationship can take place.

6. Working and Contact with the Media

- 6.1 There may be occasions where the press will contact an Employee for information about the Academy. Employees must refer requests for this type of 'information' to the Academy's Escalation for Media Protocol which details the process employees should follow. This policy can be located through your Office or Business or Operations Manager.
- 6.2 Employees who write or give interviews must ensure that they make it clear that they are not representing The Romero Catholic Academy/School's view and do not bring The Romero Catholic Academy/School into disrepute. Also was ask employees to refer to the Whistleblowing Policy.
- 6.3 Employees should not publicise material which is confidential or against The Romero Catholic Academy/School/any employee's interest or the Catholic Church.

8. Working and the Law

Offences involving a risk of harm to children or to vulnerable adults are considered by the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA). All other convictions and cautions are passed to the National College for Teaching & Leadership under section 141D of the Education Act 2011, which has a role in determining if a caution or criminal offence is relevant to a teacher's registration.
- 8.3 If an employee is charged with any offence, including driving offences and if they receive any criminal conviction they must inform their Principal/Line Manager the next available working day. The Principal/Line Manager will then consider if any follow up action is necessary and decide if the matter should be referred and considered at a disciplinary hearing. Some offences would be classed as serious and would fall under the definition of gross misconduct. (Also refer to the Disciplinary Procedure.)
- 8.4 Employees must comply with the requirements of statutory bodies relating to the examination, assessment and evaluation of pupil achievement and attainment. They must not alter, falsify or add to: scripts for SAT's, coursework or moderating marks submitted for GCSE/ A Level examination, and should not provide unauthorised photocopies of forthcoming examination papers to students.

They should also ensure that they keep up to date with health and safety guidance as provided by the employer. (Also refer to the Health and Safety Policy within the School)
- 9.2 Employees working in one to one situations with children and young people may be more vulnerable to allegations. They should therefore assess the need to have another adult present, and consider the location and facilities to ensure their own security and safety and that of the child/young person.
- 9.3 An employee should use any safety clothing and equipment provided by the employer that is needed in their role and ensure that the equipment is not misused, neglected or damaged.

- 9.7 Prescribed drugs may be taken but if a GP gives an employee any medication that may have a negative effect on their performance, they should tell their Line Manager in confidence. Possession of and dealing in illegal substances will be immediately reported to the police in all cases and may result in formal disciplinary action, including the possibility of summary dismissal.
- 9.8 The Romero Catholic Academy/School operates a No Smoking Policy which includes e-cigarettes. This applies to all Romero Catholic Academy premises, including the grounds, and those where Romero Catholic Academy services are provided.
